Looking for a scenic retreat in the mountains of Idaho for your family or group reunion, church group, youth group, or corporate retreat?

Cascade Lake 4-H Camp is the answer!

Not just limited to 4-H groups, Cascade Lake 4-H Camp is also available for your group to rent. Examples of groups that use the camp include schools, churches, families, sports training camps, weddings, and corporate retreats. Design your own camping adventure using our comfortable facilities in a scenic setting.

The goal of the Cascade Lake 4-H Camp is to provide a quality facility with quality service at a reasonable cost for overnight and day camping activities for self-directed groups. The camp is owned and managed by Cascade Lake 4-H Camp, Inc., a nonprofit corporation administered by a board of volunteer directors. Employees include a seasonal camp manager and kitchen staff.

Cascade Lake 4-H Camp is located on 56 acres of pine forest on the shores of scenic Cascade Lake Reservoir, 1.75 miles west of Donnelly, Idaho, just down the road from Tamarack Resort. The camp is 2 miles east of West Mountain (elev. 5,000 feet at base, 7,340 feet at summit), 15 miles south of McCall, 18 miles north of Cascade, 13 miles from Weiser River/White Licks Hot Springs, 25 miles from Brundage Ski area, 35 miles from Zim's Hot Springs in New Meadows, and 95 miles north of Boise.
